South Whitehall Township
Homeland Preservation Committee

Mission Statement

10 February 2020

The Homeland Preservation Committee mission is to preserve and protect from future development as much land in South Whitehall Township as possible without negatively affecting the health, safety or welfare of its citizens and without endangering taxpayers' or the township's economic security. The committee will define the land preservation funding requirements and pursue all possible sources to fund land preservation and will always act with as much transparency as is allowed by law.
