

PUBLIC MEETING/VIRTUAL MEETING RULES

- All meetings are electronically recorded
- Participants names will not be displayed during the meeting.
- All participants will be required to mute their microphones when not participating in the dialogue
- If a participant wants Courtesy of the Floor, or wants to make public comment, or has a question on a specific topic, they must type their name and address in the chat feature. The meeting facilitator will identify and call on the individual requesting to speak.
- If someone is participating via phone, there will be an opportunity to ask questions/comment once the individual has unmuted their microphone and identified themselves with name and address.
- If someone has requested COF prior to the meeting via e-mail, the facilitator will identify and call on the individual who has requested COF.
- Public comment will be limited to 5 minutes per speaker.

These rules have been established to ensure a professional meeting environment.
